

Carol's Grand Adventures

The beautiful mountains of New Mexico are one of my favorite places to visit. It is there I can rest, relax, rejuvenate and visit my family.

Santa Fe, New Mexico is where my parents live and work. Their gallery "The Passionate Eye" is right on the plaza.

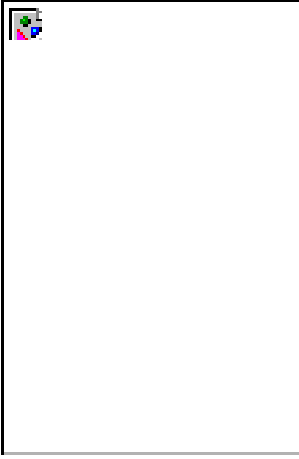

I first visited the beautiful country of Turkey in 1998 for almost 4 months and returned in 1999 for a month. I was a guest of the Fisek institute in Ankara where I studied women and children working in the factories. I lectured at Universities, Rotary clubs, and Kiwanis clubs about children at risk in both the United States and Turkey. Turkey has since become my adopted country.
